Ok. Thanks. I am beginning to wonder if the DOJ community relations person who is interested in npdes permitting and compliance issues on the Res, the Encana frenchie gulch complaint on state land that Todd Parfitt called about and that I spoke with Art and his staffer Gwen about this am AND the NPR reporter inquiry are all somehow related. I also have to wonder if any of our staff are stirring the pot.

I think it's under control, but I believe Rich may send you a note to keep you in the loop. Thanks.
